

1991 Editorial Index

COMPILED BY MARGARET PENDLETON HUMPHREY

AGRICULTURE LAW

"Up on the Farm: Agriculture Lawyers Are Cultivating Networks to Share Information and Ideas." Richard D. Hall, September, p.23

ALTERNATIVE DISPUTE RESOLUTION

"Suing Lawyers Who Sue: Litigators Should Be Liable for Malpractice if They Don't First Offer Mediation to Clients." Robert F. Cochran Jr., April, p.120

"Selling Justice: Can Jack Trotter Keep His Stable of Private Judges at the Head of the Pack?" Jean Guccione, October, p.32

ANTITRUST LAW

"Is There Antitrust After 'Syfy'? Recent Ninth Circuit Cases Create Barriers to Enforcement." Eliot G. Disner, March, p.63

BUSINESS OF LAW

"The Clock Is Running: Law Firm Billing Procedures." Lawrence W. Schonbrun, January, p.41

"Serving Two Masters: Arguing Opposite Sides of Similar Issues Can Drive a Wedge Between Law Firm Partners." Paul Freeman, February, p.22

"Librarians Get Noisy: Librarians in Large Law Firms Want More Respect—and Compensation." Mark Nelson, February, p.26

"Living on the Edge: Some Associates Getting Laid Off Accept Their Fate as Part of the Law Business." Nancy Rutter, March, p.24

"Improving Your Cash Flow: A Few Steps Can Help You Stay Out of Trouble." Edward Poll, March, p.47

"How to Survive the Recession: Trim the Fat, Not the Muscle." Donald H. Oppenheim and Carole C. Jordan, March, p.57

"Unrelenting Rent: A Glut of Office Space Is Making It Difficult for Lawyers to Find Subtenants." Morris Newman, April, p.19

"How to Cut Litigation Costs: Ten Tips to Help Win for Your Client in the Pocketbook as Well as in the Courtroom." Paul W. Sweeney Jr., April, p.61

"How to Collect 97% of Your Fees." Eric F. Fagan, May, p.51

"Father Time [Parental Leave]." Beret E. Strong, May, p.102

"Putting Money to Good Work [Robert Berend]." Frank Clancy, July, p.113

"The Write Stuff: Law Firms Are Finally Putting a Little Creativity into Their Letterhead." Nancy Rutter, August, p.43

"Adding a Legal Stamp." Raymond Schuessler, August, p.98

"The New Rainmakers: Computers Are Eclipsing Lawyers as a Firm's Most Important Resource for Bringing in New Clients." David H. Tobey, October, p.38

"Writing a Lease to Fit the Times: Now Is the Time to Make Your Lease Recession-Proof." Stephen Bay and Brad Werner, October, p.59

"Covering Your Assets: Intelligently Structuring Personal Guarantees Can Protect the Firm's Partners." Stephen Koch and Melanie Hirschhorn Vetter, October, p.61

"Shaken to the Core: What California Lawyers Are Experiencing Is Not Merely a Recession. It Is a Permanent Change in the Market for Legal Services." Nancy Rutter, November, p.34

"An Artful Investment." Corinne Shane, November, p.105

"The Niche of Crime: A Handful of Lawyers Is Helping Crime Victims Seek Restitution." Steven Pressman, December, p.26

CALIFORNIA SUPREME COURT

"The Broussard Legacy: The State Supreme Court Loses Its Key Voice of Dissent." Philip Carrizosa, April, p.17

"The Disappearing Dissenters: California Supreme Court - The Year in Review." Gerald F. Uelmen, June, p.34

"The Top 10 Cases of the Year." Gerald Uelmen, June, p.40

"Where Are They Now? Former California Supreme Court Justices Find There Is Life After the Bench." Joyce Alcantara, October, p.24

CIVIL RIGHTS

"Sanity by Prescription: Can Mental Patients Just Say No?" Dirk Olin, January, p.22

"Lawyers in Danger [Lawyers Committee for Human Rights]." June, p.24

"New Rights for the Disabled." Michael M. Johnson, June, p.63

"In Law We Trust: An Orange County Atheist Attorney Takes on the Boy Scouts." Marilyn Kalfus, July, p.20

CONSTITUTIONAL LAW

"The Porn Wars: The Government and Private Crusaders Take on the California Pornography Industry." Terry Carter, January, p.17

"Alan Sears: Porn War Veteran." Terry Carter, January, p.18

"Live From Death Row: A Federal Lawsuit Challenges San Quentin's Ban on Broadcasting Executions." Steven Pressman, March, p.20

"The Pentagon's Press: The War Is Over, but the Battle Over Media Restrictions Goes On." Laura Fraser, April, p.20

"The Endangered Individual: To Serve Human Needs, Expand the Bill of Rights." Charles A. Reich, July, p.116

"Take the State Constitution Seriously: The California Supreme Court Is Sending Out the Wrong Message on Our Independent Source of Rights." Joseph R. Grodin, August, p.100

"Restoring Reason to Search and Seizure: Fourth Amendment Law Is So Fragmented That the Underlying Principle Is Getting Lost." Robert C. Fellmeth, September, p.132

"Cable's Counsel: Cable Television's Leading Lawyer Plots His Next Move in the Industry He Helped Create [Harold Farrow]." Barbara Mahan, November, p.24

"Kidnapping Foreign Felons: The Ninth Circuit Has Set Limits on Snatching Foreign Criminals - Much to the Chagrin of the U.S. Government." Terry Carter, December, p.17

"Interpreting the Bill of Rights: An Illustrated History [Pullout Chart]." Erwin Chemerinsky, December, p.48

COURT CONGESTION

"Mine Is Much Worse Than Yours: California's Rural Counties Cope With Jam-Packed Courts and Outdated Facilities." Martha Freeman, March, p.17

"SOS: Stop Outrageous Sanctions. There Are Better Ways to Reduce Court Congestion." Daniel Robert Bartley, June, p.108

"Problem? What Problem? Hard Work and Good Management Have Erased a Backlog of Criminal Cases in San Diego and Los Angeles." B.J. Palermo, July, p.26

"The Fast Track to Failure: Sole Practitioners and Lawyers in Small Firms Say Expedited Trial Procedures Are Hurting Business." B.J. Palermo, November, p.19

CRIMINAL LAW

"Who Killed Dexter Jacobson?" Susan Kostal, January, p.28

"Welcome to Teen Court: An Unusual Court Program Allows Teenagers to Judge Their Peers." Stacey Colino, February, p.34

"Doing Sick Time: The State Has Failed to Adopt Medical-Care Regulations for Prisons and Jails." Gina Lobaco, March, p.28

"Cops in the Dock: Recent Misconduct Trials Underscore the Difficulty of Prosecuting the Police." Mark Thompson, March, p.30

"Chico's Hangover: A Year After Springtime Riots, Prosecutors Are Still Trying to Deliver on Their Tough Talk." Jim Haynes, April, p.26

"When Prelims Turn Pro Forma: Under Proposition 115, Prosecutors Are Converting Police Hearsay Evidence into Uncontested Facts." Michael A. Cowell, March, p.104

"Coping With Proposition 115: The Justices Have Already Upheld Its Constitutionality. Now Comes the Hard Part." Robert Egelko, May, p.21

"The Case for Legalizing Drugs." Vincent T. Bugliosi, May, p.104

"Habeas on a Half Shell: The U.S. Supreme Court Has Significantly Restricted the Use of Habeas Corpus." Richard C. Reuben, August, p.20

"Death Penalty Watch [chart]." August, p.22

"Somos Hermanos: The Lives of the Gonzalez Brothers Intertwine Through Four Murder Trials in the Sacramento Valley." Michael Bowker, August, p.30

"Till Death Do Us Part: For More Than Half a Century Bob Edwards Loved and Cared for his Wife, Muriel. That Is Why He Had to Kill Her." Barbara Mahan, September, p.42

"Reconvening the Grand Jury: Prop 115 has Revived a Bitter Debate Over the Criminal Grand Jury System." Michael Checchio, October, p.17

"Snitch: The Los Angeles Jailhouse-Informant Scandal." Martin Berg, November, p.51

"Crime Labs Under the Microscope: As the Range and Importance of Forensic Evidence Grows, Some Scientists Push for Better Standards." David Helvang, December, p.43

"All God's Creatures [Forensic Evidence]." Thomas Brom, December, p.44

DIRECTORIES/SURVEYS

"Bar Survey Reveals Widespread Legal Illiteracy." June, p.68

"Legal Automation Directory." July, p.65

"California's Lawyer Boom [growth chart]." October, p.20

"Expert Witness Directory." October, p.71

"The Wages of Law." November, p.32

"California's Top 50 Largest Law Firms." November, p.41

"Where the Lawyers Are." December, p.20

DISCRIMINATION

"A Voice for White Males: A San Francisco Lawyer Is Leading the Charge in Reverse Discrimination Cases." Steven Pressman, February, p.30

"Father Time [Parental Leave]." Beret E. Strong, May, p.102

"Prosecuting Bigotry." Bill Hafferty, June, p.28

"Who's Bashing Whom? Lawsuits Against Japanese Companies Spark Charges of Prejudice - From Both Sides." Mark Thompson, August, p.23

"Lockyer Takes Steps to Toughen California's Hate Crime Statutes." November, p.72

ENVIRONMENTAL LAW

"A New Agenda for a New A.G.: Big Green Is Out; Big Oil and Big Farms Are In [Dan Lungren]." Tom Dresslar, February, p.17

"The Greening of Corporate America: Northern California Lawyers

Helped Invent Environmental Practice." Nancy Rutter, April, p.33

"Saving the Earth: The Ecology Bar Includes Poverty Lawyers, District Attorneys and Litigators Who Moonlight Drafting Statewide Ballot Initiatives." Susan Seager, April, p.39

"Through the Revolving Door: The Allure of Big Money Draws Environmental Lawyers from the Public Sector into Private Practice." James Evans, April, p.45

"Life After 'Fleet Factors': Lenders Must Take Steps to Minimize Their Liability for Hazardous Waste Cleanup." Thomas Redick, April, p.72

"Gnatual Defenses: Southern California Developers May See Their Grandiose Plans Flutter Away With a Small Endangered Bird." Steven Pressman, August, p.19

"Hiring Environmental Expertise: What to Look for in Specialists." David R. Andrews, October, p.55

"Corporate Trustees and Environmental Liability: They Can Rule But Can They Hide?" George C. Weir, October, p.65

"Selling the Right to Pollute: Market Incentives Are Needed to Improve Our Lumbering Regulatory System of Environmental Protection." Roger Lane Carrick, December, p.116

ETHICS

"The Ethics Business: Sorting Out the Rules of Professional Conduct Has Become a New Specialty for Academics and Legal Consultants." Chris Goodrich, July, p.36

"Do Not Burn, Shred or Mutilate: Destroying Evidence Can Ruin Cases - and Careers." Barry S. Martin, November, p.69

EXPERT WITNESSES

"Experts With the Common Touch: Look for Expert Witnesses Who Know the Field From Personal Experience." Paul Gillette, October, p.70

"The Expert's Expert: When Paul Kayfetz Became an Inactive Attorney He Became a Very Active Expert Witness." Bill Hafferty, November, p.30

FAMILY LAW

"The Baby Brokers: Nebulous Laws Are Allowing a Handful of Adoption Attorneys to Stretch the Boundaries of Law and Ethics." Steven Pressman, July, p.30

"Dial D for Divorce: Telephone-Legal Services Take the Next Step - Becoming Specialized." Anne Steinhart, October, p.30

FEDERAL COURTS

"The Amazing Kozinski: The Man Who Would Be Justice Has a Few Tricks Up His Sleeve." Richard C. Reuben, March, p.32

"The Rule 11 Ruckus: Sanctions Have Changed Federal Practice - and Bitterly Divided the Bar." Paul D. Freeman, May, p.17

"Certifying Appeals From Remand Orders: Defendants Find New Ways to Get Around the Statutory Bar Against Review." Mark Herrmann, August, p.59

"Judge Schwarzer Goes to Washington: The Former San Francisco Federal Judge Has Turned the Federal Judicial Center Into a Bully Pulpit for Discovery Reform." Terry Carter, September, p.21

"Return to Gender: A Ninth Circuit Case Looks at Gender Bias in Selecting Jurors and Whether Anti-Bias Rules Should Apply to Defense Attorneys." Alan Abrahamson, September, p.30

FICTION

"Sacrifice." Andrew Vachss, June, p.42

"The Rhyme of the Ancient Barrister." Richard Scheuler, July, p.42

"Bad Business." Julian O. Standen, September, p.125

IMMIGRATION LAW

"A Broader Border Patrol? Federal Prosecutors Want Agents at Immigration Checkpoints to Look for Drugs, too." Donna Wares, January, p.24

"Give Me Your Millionaires: New Immigration Regulations Favor Those With Professional Skills and Money." Joyce Alcantara, October, p.22

"A Borderline Rule: A Tough Regulation Designed to Keep Out Illegal Immigrants Will Be Tested This Month in the U.S. Supreme Court." Kenneth Jost, November, p.28

"Kidnapping Foreign Felons: The Ninth Circuit Has Set Limits on Snatching Foreign Criminals—Much to the Chagrin of the U.S. Government." Terry Carter, December, p.17

INSURANCE

"Highway Robbery: Southern California's Multi-billion-dollar Staged-accident Business." Mark Thompson, May, p.28

"Revisiting the 'Cumis' Rule: New Legislation Codifying the right to Independent Counsel Creates a Whole New Set of Problems." Jeffrey B. Ellis, May, p.55

"Insurance Coverage and 'Unfair Competition': Will California Courts Continue to Construe Policies Broadly." Grace A. Carter and Sheryl J. Cohen, November, p.63

"The S&L Litigation Explosion: The Government Is Now Going After Directors and Officers of Failed Financial Institutions." David J. Millstein, December, p.54

INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

"Up Against the Wall: Mural Artists Get Vigilant About Copyright Enforcement." Steven Pressman, September, p.25

"Copyright Law vs The First Amendment: Bills to Extend the Protections of the Fair Use Doctrine to Unpublished Works Are Now Before Congress." Lawrence J. Siskind, September, p.71

LAND-USE LAW

"What's Left of Property Rights? Landmark Landowner Cases Have Failed to Deliver All They Promised." William Fulton, June, p.26

LAW FIRM PROFILES

"Making It Through the 90s: Cooley Godward Restructures to Regain Lost Ground in Silicon Valley." Nancy Rutter, February, p.38

"An Old-Line Firm Confronts a New Era: Los Angeles's Tuttle & Taylor Struggles to Retain Its Old-Fashioned Values in a Competitive Marketplace." Nancy Rutter, May, p.24

"The Messy Demise of Wyman Bautzer." Nancy Rutter, June, p.48

"How Not to Merge: Macdonald, Halsted & Laybourne Joins Megafirm Baker & McKenzie." Nancy Rutter, September, p.34

LAW OFFICE DESIGN

"Extrovert Interiors: Cost Efficiency Is Fueling Major Creativity in Law Firm Interior Design." Morris Newman, May, p.40

LAW SCHOOLS

"L.A.'s Lay Law School: The Beverly Hills Bar Association Scores Public Relations Points With Its Citizens Law School." B.J. Palermo, April, p.24

"A Sharper Image: In a Crowded Market, Law Schools Are Learning to Carve Out a Niche for Themselves." Cynthia Cooper, May, p.34

"A Dean for All Seasons: Gordon Schaber Has Left McGeorge School of Law, But Not Sacramento Politics." Jim Christie, July, p.22

LAWYERING

"Assumption of Risk on Trial: To the Dismay of the Plaintiffs Bar, This Once Discredited Defense Is Being Revived." James C. Glassford, January, p.57

"Wrongful Use of Attachments." Alan M. Mirman, February, p.60

"What Do We Have Here? Careful Evaluation of Your Cases Is the Key to Successful Lawyering." Terry Bridges, February, p.73

"Lawyer for Hire: You Too Can Practice Law as an Independent." Michael Ginsberg, March, p.51

"Avoiding Traps in the Letter of Intent." Matthew A. Hodel and Benjamin A. Nix, July, p.54

LEGAL RESEARCH

"Basic Training: A Call to Arms for More Attention to Legal Research Skills." Robert C. Berring, February, p.50

"In-House Training Takes Off." Alice V. Sharp, February, p.52

"A Map Through the Maze: The Pathfinder Is a New Tool That Can Save Time and Money." Victoria K. Trotta, February, p.53

"The Myth and Magic of Computer-Assisted Legal Research." Richard A. Leiter, February, p.57

MALPRACTICE

"A Warning from the Jury Box: Legal Malpractice Cases Almost Never Go to Trial, Let Alone to Juries." Michael Castleman, April, p.48

"Caveat Insured: How to Avoid Surprises in Your Legal Malpractice Insurance." Ronald Mallen, September, p.53

MARKETING

"The PR Factor: Even Smaller Firms Are Using Public Relations Agencies to Help Them Stand Out from the Crowd." Paul D. Freeman, January, p.47

"Focusing on the Big Picture: The Role of Law Firm Marketing Directors." Paul D. Freeman, April, p.67

"Newsletters that Read Your Clients." Alan P. Levine, September, p.63

"The 3rd Annual CALIFORNIA LAWYER Marketing Awards." September, p.64

MINORITIES

"The Invisible Hispanic Attorney." Steven Pressman, January, p.36

"From Segregation to Role Model: Justice Broussard Continues the Fight for Equal Opportunities for All Minorities."

ities." May, p.62

"The Minority Report: A Program Designed to Direct Business to Minority Firms and Lawyers Is Getting Mixed Reviews." Paul D. Freeman, June, p.22

MUNICIPAL LAW

"Born to Sue: Malibu Is Not Yet a City, but It Already Knows Its Way Around a Courthouse." B.J. Palermo, February, p.28

"Acts of God and Government: The 1989 Earthquake Brings Into Question the Government's Power to Demolish Damaged Buildings." Bill Hafferty, August, p.24

POLITICS AND LAW

"A New Agenda for a New A.G.: Big Green Is Out; Big Oil and Big Farms Are In [Dan Lungren]." Tom Dresslar, February, p.17

"The Lungren Team." Halley Jordan, February, p.20

"Making Laws Without Lawyers: Legislative Spending Caps May Mean More Law-writing Work for Lobbyists." Jim Christie, April, p.22

"Lungren in Limine: The New Attorney General Ruffles a Few Feathers as He Settles Into His Job." Sigrid Bathen, August, p.17

PRO BONO

"The Lawyers from La Mancha: The Members of the San Francisco Community Law Collective have Scattered, but Their Idealism Survives." Terry Carter, February, p.44

"For Three Attorneys, A Special Way of Helping Other People [Thomas Nazario, Yvonne Mariajimenez, Allen Kato]." February, p.76

"Homeless Defense Team Wins Major Case for Indigent Clients." September, p.78

"For Three Attorneys [Garrett Wong, Jack Purcell, Ted Laguatan], A Special Way of Helping Other People." October, p.76

"Lawyers Get Their Phil: As Chairman of the Assembly Judiciary Committee, Phil Isenberg Mixes Pragmatism and Idealism." Jim Christie, December, p.28

"From Downtown to the Downtrodden: Helping the Poor Used to Mean Aggressive Litigation. Not Any More." Ricardo Sandoval, December, p.30

PROFILES

"Alan Sears: Porn War Veteran."

Terry Carter, January, p.18

"Defending the Vet [Barry Levin]." Stacey Colino, January, p.20

"He Puts His Ideals Into Practice [Michael Linfield]." Jonathan L. Kirsch, January, p.93

"Widows-at-Law [Ethel Levitt and Grace Quinn]." Sylvia Tiersten, February, p.32

"For Three Attorneys, A Special Way of Helping Other People [Thomas Nazario, Yvonne Mariajimenez, Allen Kato]." February, p.76

"For the Love of Humanity [John Wagner]." Beret E. Strong, February, p.117

"The Ex-Felon as Lawyer [John Garcia]." Mark Blumberg, March, p.24

"The Amazing Kozinski: The Man Who Would Be Justice Has a Few Tricks Up His Sleeve." Richard C. Reuben, March, p.32

"Providing Assistance in Times of War: Former CBE Chair [Tom Eres] Works with Military Reservists, Their Families and the State Bar to Provide Legal Services During the Persian Gulf Conflict." March, p.70

"Lawyer Sings the Blues, and Other Favorites. [Barbara McGraw]" M. Eileen McGarry, March, p.101

"How We Spent Our Sabbatical." Larry J. Shapiro and Carol G. Perry, April, p.118

"Channeling His Energy [Steve Frantz]." Richard J. Hanscom, May, p.101

"Who Ya Gonna Call? [Alexander Henson]" Martha Freeman, June, p.20

"Janice Brown: The Governor's Lawyer." Jim Christie, June, p.31

"Nikon Bwana [Ken Rosenthal]." Stacey Colino, June, p.105

"An Inside Look at Scott Turow: His Love for Writing Will Never Replace his Passion for the Practice of Law." August, p.64

"Sin-Derella, Esq. [Ann Grogan]." Michael Castleman, August, p.97

"The Three Amigos: If You Like Your Appellate Judges Formal, Stodgy and Aloof, Stay Out of Ventura County [Kenneth Yegan, Steven Stone, Arthur Gilbert]." William Fulton, September, p.24

"Transcending the Law [H. Theodore Craig III]." Beret E. Strong, September, p.129

"Where Are They Now? Former California Supreme Court Justices Find There Is Life After the Bench." Joyce Alcantara, October, p.24

"Taking a Television Break [George Clyde]." Pamela Feinsilber, October, p.113

"Lawyers Get Their Phil: As Chairman of the Assembly Judiciary Committee, Phil Isenberg Mixes Pragmatism and Idealism." Jim Christie, December, p.28

"Lawyers Take Action to Help Fire Victims in the East Bay." December, p.68

"A True-Life Adventurer [Robert Cogan]." Pamela Feinsilber, December, p.114

"The Lion in Winter: Melvin Belli, Both King of Torts and King's Fool, Still Rages at 84." James Evans, December, p.34

STATE BAR

"You Can't Ignore the Law [lawyer referral services, advertising]." January, p.60

"The State Bar and the Los Angeles District Attorney Take Action Against Uncertified Lawyer Referral Services." April, p.78

"Dial M for MCLE: Minimum Continuing Legal Education Is Mandatory, and Thousands of Potential Providers Are Eager for Your Business." Michael J. Hall, June, p.21

"Bar Survey Reveals Widespread Legal Illiteracy." June, p.68

STATE COURTS

"A Vote Against Court Consolidation: California Trial Courts Don't Need to Be More Like the Federal Courts." Judge Pamela L. Iles, January, p.96

"Deukmejian's Judicial Legacy: The Retiring Governor Has Kept His Promise to Put a Conservative Cast on the State's Judiciary." Peter Allen, February, p.25

"The Old Girls Network: Members of a San Diego Women's Support Group Have Taken Charge of the Area's Courts." Paul D. Freeman, March, p.22

"Death Penalty Experts: Some Judges in California Have Carved Out an Unusual Specialty." Diane Keaton, April, p.28

"How the Chief Justice Cut Off His Right Hand: William Davis's Departure Leaves a Host of Unanswered Questions." Peter Allen with Bob Egelko, June, p.17

"Power to the People: A Movement to Give Juries the Right to Nullify Laws Comes to California [Dixianne Hawks]." Jim Haynes, July, p.17

"The Unleashing of Memory: An Unusual Case Involving Child Abuse and Satanic Cults Results in an Ambiguous

Conclusion." Donna Wares, July, p.19

"The Three Amigos: If You Like Your Appellate Judges Formal, Stodgy and Aloof, Stay Out of Ventura County [Kenneth Yegan, Steven Stone, Arthur Gilbert]." William Fulton, September, p.24

"Will She Appeal? To Pete Wilson, That Is. Santa Clara's Judge LaDoris Cordell Is in the Running for a Higher Seat." Anne E. Steinhardt, September, p.28

"Pro Per Procedure [Small Claims]." Joyce Alcantara, September, p.27

"AIDS in the Courts: A Little Education Can Make Judges a Lot More Sensitive to Those with AIDS." B.J. Palermo, November, p.22

"Pay-As-You-Go Justice: Discovery Referees Take the Load Off Trial Judges and Shift Costs to the Parties." James B. Evans Jr., November, p.108

"Turf's Up: Municipal Court Judges Fear Losing Their Identification in the Wake of Court Coordination Plans." B.J. Palermo, December, p.19

"Nighty-Night Night Court: Los Angeles Ends Its Experiment With a Nighttime Superior Court Schedule." B.J. Palermo, December, p.22

TECHNOLOGY

"High-Tech Cut-and-Paste: Document Assembly." Linda Breen Pierce and James R. Pierce, January, p.53

"Putting Some Byte in Your Case: A Guide to Companies that Provide Computerized Litigation Support Services." Peter K. Rosen, February, p.63

"Laptop Romance." Martin L. Dean, April, p.53

"Watch Your Backups: Five Ways You Can Lose Your Hard Disk Files, and What You Can Do About It." Alan Alberts, May, p.47

"Should Lawyers Do Windows? Options For Lawyers Who Want to Move Quickly Among Programs." Gregory Jordahl, June, p.56

"Cashing in on Research: Electronic Law Libraries Are Becoming Profit Centers." Marie G. Wallace and Alice Chu, July, p.47

"Legal Automation Directory." July, p.65

"Findings of Fax: A Program That Permits Fax Filing Has Met With Little Enthusiasm." B.J. Palermo, August, p.26

"Lessons from the Laser Front: Using a Laser Disk to Present Exhibits." Robert H. Fairbank, Gail E. Lee and Robert F. Seltzer, August, p.49

"Custom-Tailored Express Mail."

David O. Weber, August, p.55

"Proceeding With Caution on Car Phones." David O. Weber, September, p.67

"A Reasonable Facsimile: Choosing a Fax Machine Is Not a Simple Matter." Sylvana Smith, September, p.68

"Better Lawyering Through Technology: Portable Computers and Other Miracle Machines." Chris Barnett, October, p.44

"Building an Electronic Team: How One Small Firm Selected and Installed a Local Area Network." Peter K. Rosen, November, p.57

"No Risk in Repeating Yourself: Computers Take the Time and Risk Out of Recycled Work Product." Joseph E. Hustein, December, p.49

TORTS

"Trends in Emotional Distress Cases: New 'Bright Line' Rules Are Being Developed by the Courts." Christopher F. Wilson, October, p.63

"Punishment Ad Absurdum: The Lure of Punitive Damage Awards in Mass Tort Cases Is Discouraging Settlement and Clogging the Courts." William W. Schwarzer, October, p.116.

TRIAL SKILLS

"Stop Litigation Terrorism: Lawyers Who Use Rambo Tactics Have No Respect for Their Clients or the Legal System." Briane Nelson Mitchell, February, p.120

"Hollywood Law: A San Francisco Lawyer Finds His Advice Goes Only so Far in a Movieland Courtroom." Richard A. Zitrin, March, p.40

"Reconsidering Motions to Reconsider." John G. Hanlin, June, p.66

"Courtroom Theatrics: Acting Techniques Can Improve a Trial Lawyer's Performance." Steven Winn, July, p.61

"Shadow of a Verdict: Hired to Mimic a Sitting Jury Panel, Shadow Jurors Work at the Fringes of Ethical Trial Practice." Reese Erlich, August, p.36

"To Catch a Child Thief: Quick Court Action Can Bring the Return of a Kidnapped Child." Peter M. Walzer, December, p.60

"Getting Their Attention." Paul D. Freeman, Timothy H. Hallahan and Henry L. Hecht, December, p.62

U.S. SUPREME COURT

"A Step in the Same Direction: The U.S. Supreme Court This Term Is Expected to Continue on Its Conservative Path." Richard C. Reuben, October, p.28

Find out what you've been missing.

- Defaults, trustee's sales for 7 Bay Area counties
- VA, HUD listings
- Advice on investing
- Updates on court decisions affecting real estate
- Analysis of market trends
- Loan rate guide
- Real estate news, features

Call for a free sample.
(415) 465-3121

The Inter-City Express

Northern California's daily real estate newspaper

JURY INSTRUCTIONS On Computer Disk!

The Original.....The Leader!
JuryInstruction™

- BAJI, CALJIC, FED Civil, FED Criminal available!
- Simple pull-down menus!
- Search - edit - print!
- Selectable Court Headers
- Network version available

$179 choose 1 instruction set
$80 each additional set
$325 network version

CRYSTAL SOFTWARE
4764 Park Granada, Suite 110
Calabasas, CA 91302
(213) 833-1880

VISA/MC COD PREPAID

CIRCLE 93 ON READER SERVICE CARD